FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of Milwaukee County.
2. On August 28, 2013, the Department of Children and Families (the agency) sent the Petitioner a manual child care overpayment notice indicating that he was overpaid child care benefits between January 1, 2012 and December 31, 2012, in the amount of $8,918.21. An overpayment worksheet was attached to that document. (Exhibit 3, pgs. 8-10)

3. On that same date the agency sent Petitioner a second manual overpayment notice indicating that he was overpaid child care benefits between January 1, 2013 and May 31, 2013, in the amount of $5676.70. An overpayment worksheet was attached to that document. (Exhibit 3, pgs. 6-7)
4. On September 4, 2013, the agency sent the Petitioner a repayment agreement. (Exhibit 3, pgs. 18-20)
5. On October 2, 2013, November 4, 2013 and December 3, 2013, the agency sent the Petitioner dunning notices / reminders about the debt. (Exhibit 3, pgs. 22, 24, and 26)
6. On January 17, 2014, the agency sent the Petitioner a notice indicating that it was going to intercept any tax refunds to which she might be entitled to satisfy the child care overpayment. (Exhibit 3, pg. 27)
7. Petitioner filed a request for fair hearing that was received by the Division of Hearings and Appeals on April 9, 2014. (Exhibit 2)

DISCUSSION

Wis. Stats. §49.195(3) states that county agencies must determine when an overpayment in child care benefits has occurred and that it must, “promptly recover all overpayments”.

Wis. Stat., §49.85(2)(b), provides that the Department of Children and Families shall, at least annually, certify to the Department of Revenue the amounts that it has determined that it may recover under Wis. Stats. §§ 49.161, 49.195(3) and 49.147(6)(cm).

The Department of Children and Families must notify the person that it intends to certify the overpayment to the Department of Revenue for setoff from his/her state income tax refund and must inform the person that he/she may appeal the decision by requesting a hearing. Id. at §49.85(3)(b).

The hearing right is described in Wis. Stat., §49.85(4)(b), as follows:

If a person has requested a hearing under this subsection, the department ... shall hold a contested case hearing under s. 227.44, except that the department ... may limit the scope of the hearing to exclude issues that were presented at a prior hearing or that could have been presented at a prior opportunity for hearing.

Emphasis added

A party has 30-days from the date of the letter/notice of tax intercept to file an appeal. Wis. Stat., §49.85(3)(a)2 In this case, the date of the notice was January 14, 2014. As such, Petitioner needed to file her appeal by February 13, 2014. His appeal was not filed until April 9, 2014, well past the appeal deadline. As such, his appeal is untimely and there is no jurisdiction to hear the merits of her appeal.

Even if jurisdiction did exist to hear the merits of Petitioner’s appeal, the record shows that the agency acted correctly.

The Wisconsin Shares Child Care Assistance Manual §2.1.6 and §2.1.6.2 describes the collections process used by the Department of Children and Families:

1. An overpayment notice is issued.
2. A repayment agreement is issued. Local Agencies and the Public Assistance Collections Unit can negotiate repayment plan, if the balance of the debt cannot be paid in three years, but the minimum monthly payment must be $20.00.
3. If the repayment agreement is not returned OR a full payment is missed, a dunning notice is issued.
4. If 3 (three) dunning notices are issued over the life of the debt, the overpayment is referred for further collections actions: levy, warrants/liens and tax interception.

The agency sent the Petitioner an overpayment notice and a repayment agreement. The agency properly sent Petitioner three dunning notices to remind Petitioner to make payments towards the child care overpayment. Petitioner did not make any payments toward the debt. As such, the agency correctly notified Petitioner, on January 17, 2014, of its intention to intercept any tax refunds or credits that may become due him.
